FALLING OF THE AX.

MASTER VAN KLEECK.

BEMOVAL OF REPUBLICANS-SUDDEN DEATH OF POST-BY TRESPRED TO THE TRIBUNE.
POUGHEERPSIE, NOV. 8.—As was predicted, the work of removing Republicans from office in this District, immediately after election, has already commenced. Commissions arrived here last night for three new Assessors, Messra. Hubbell and Jordan of Columbia County, and James Dearen of Fishkill, Dutchess County. The vasions arrived here last night for three new Assessors, Messra. Hubbell and Jordan of Columbia County, and James Dearen of Fishkill, Dutchess County. The vacancy in the Post-Office Department here, cansed by the death of Albert Van Kleeck, whose funeral takes place to-morrow, has already become an object of much interest to the Copporheads.

The names of but two persons have been spoken of in connection with the office, and those are Henry Smith of the City Bank and President of the Democratic Association here, and E. B. Osborne, eaq., editor of The Pough-keepsie Daily Press. Some time ago Mr. Osborne put in claim for the Post-Office, it having at that time been understood that Mr. Van Kleeck, the deceased Postmaster, was to have been removed immediately after election.

I am told that secret friends of Mr. Smith, hearing that Mr. Osborne was an applicant for the position, went to the latter, and gaining his confidence, prevailed on him to put his case in their hands, he to remain silent while they pulled the wires. Mr. Osborne, full of confidence, did so. His pretended friends then left him, and immediately commenced working for his opponent, and the consequences are that Smith has now got the inside track. In fact, it is aiready noised around that Smith's commission has arrived, and that either Judge Nelson or Tilden of Columbia County have it in their breeches pocket. If such is not really the case, Smith must keep an eye open, or else Osborne will come down the home stretch ahead. Mr. Osborne has many friends in the city, and his appointment would certainly be satisfactory. Mr. Smith is also a very fine man, and has a sonsiderable war record. The funeral of Mr. Van Kleeck takes place to morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. At that time the Post-Office in this city will be closed out of respect to his memory. He had long been an active politician in this district, and in former years made the acquaintance of very many prominent political men. For a few days previous to his death his had been complaining of a severe

It is thought by many that the excitement consequent upon the recoption of the election returns hastened his decesse and caused his death. He was thoroughly anti-Slavery in his views, and his son informs me, that he lately made the expression that he wished to see the land freed from Slavery, when he would be ready to die.

There was a long argument made by counsel as to the admisibility of evidence, after which the Court decided to admit evidence which toek a very wide range, embracing every point in the proceedings incident upon the trial and removal of the Commissioners, the appointment of others, and the proceedings subsequent, down to the arrest and imprisonment of Messrs. MISMISSIPPI COTTON CROP—NORTHERN PLANTERS COSCLUDE TO REMAIN.

WY TEL-WRAPH TO THE TRIBUER.

WAS, SINGTON, NOV. S.—An old planter in Vicksburg write that the present Winter is destined to winness the most severe distress throughout all the Southern country.

In that region the crops have failed to such an extent that it has taken all the product of the cotton crop to pay the rent, leaving the men chain who furnished the supplies to the planter,
and the planter Nimesif, without a cent.

A planter of the Yazoo, who pat 380 acres in cotton, had only a dozen bales as the result in crop, and this, with his mulez, was seized for debt.

Another planter, also on the Yazoo had 300 acres planted, and his yield was 20 bales. The very best crop known on the Yazoo will not produce this season, more than one-third of a bale to the acre, while the crop of the entire State is put down at only 100,000 bales, against 1,062,000 in 1850.

Despite these drawbacks, however Boost of the lesses of plantations from the North had concluded to remain for another year, believing that the failures just witnessed have been caused by circumstances beyons human control, and that sext year there will be a better chance of success.

Our readers are again reminded that this is a play whiten ought not to be overlooked. Mr. Stoddart's performance of Moneypehn? is alone a dramatic luxury. Quaint, tender, stirring, richly fraught with humor and pathos, it charms every sensitive nature, and it proves the rare telents and winning sensibility of the actor. The famous closing scene of the third act is called again, night after night. Miss Kate Newton, by her earnest and affecting personation of Jane Learoyd, shares the applause with Mr. Stoddart. The play itself was carefully described in these columns, on Tuesday. We have only now to add, in justice to the signal ability of Mr. Boncionult, that it is a remarkable example of the success that may be won by dependence, not upon the clement of mystery in a plot, but upon ingenious maaner in the working out of dramatic effects. This remark seems necessary, as a fair qualification of our former criticism.

In view of the proposed Convention for a revision of the State Constitution, the American Equal Rights' Association will hold a Convention in Tweddle Hall, Albany, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 20 and 21, to consider the question of securing the right of suffrage to all citizens, without distinction of race or sex. AN IMPORTANT MEASURE.—We learn that one of the newly-elected Democratic Members of Assembly from Brooklyn tras siready prepared a bill which he proposes to introduce at an early day of the session, to sholish the office of Superintendent of Police in the Metropolitan District, vesting the powers now held by that officer in the Vice-President of the Board, whose term of office shall be identical with that of the President. Astwo of these Members elect are connected with as many Democratic journals of the City, those papers will doubtless be prepared to argue and uphold this proposed change.
